Modeling in the PBCE

To succeed in the pageantry and entertainment industries many of the same talents are needed - poise, confidence and experience. In addition to the valuable exposure that you will gain at the Red Carpet Charity Fashion show, all attendees will broaden their horizons with the unique combination of learning from industry experts and networking with agents and scouts with eligibility for prize packages.

Entertainment to Business

Tyra Banks, Cindy Crawford and Kimora Lee Simmons are household names who have used their industry knowledge and experience to create successful business ventures. Less than 2% of the industry will succeed as full-time performers, but the talents that you develop can help you build a successful business career. This seminar will teach you how to use your talents to make your money work for you instead of working for your money.

Industry Ticket

Rhinestone Productions has created a tailored program that includes the PBCE seminars that will be most useful in the development of your career. Because of the many parallels between pageantry and modeling, you have the option to compliment your learning experience with additional seminars to maximize your learning opportunity
